

Calling all storytellers, musicians, and tour guides: We Need You! We are looking for people to take part in a range of activities during Govanhill International Festival & Carnival and Doors Open Days 2022. All opportunities are paid and you will be offered full training where appropriate. Read on for more!

Storytellers

We are looking for two performers with an interest in storytelling to take part in an event on Wednesday 10th August from 7-9pm. The event will be part of Govanhill International Festival and Carnival (GIFC) 2022. The stories could be traditional tales, weird histories, or personal memories: we are open to interesting proposals! As GIFC is an international festival, we are especially interested in performers from other performing or storytelling cultures. We could also pair a performer with an interpreter for stories told in another language!

Fee: £100

Interested? Email katherine@govanhillbaths.com, putting 'Storyteller' in the subject line. Tell us, in 100 words or less, what kind of stories you would like to perform.

Deadline to register interest: Monday 11th July, 5pm

Musicians

Are you part of a group of singers or musicians? Would you like to create a street-based performance during Govanhill Street Music Festival on Sunday 14th August? We are looking for a choir, band, or group of musicians to perform music connected to the early 20th Century, when Govanhill Baths was first built. This could be workers' songs, popular favourites, or early 20th-Century music from another culture. This theme is flexible and we are open to interesting ideas!

Fee: £400 (for the group)

Interested? Email katherine@govanhillbaths.com, putting 'Musicians' in the subject line. Tell us, in 100 words or less, what kind of music you make and what sort of music you could perform.

Deadline to register interest: Monday 11th July, 5pm

Tour Guides

We are looking for speakers of Arabic, Romanian, and Slovak, to lead a tour of our baths building during Doors Open Days 2022, on either the 17th or 18th September (one tour per guide). You need to be confident at speaking in front of a group, but no previous tour guide experience is needed! You will be provided with full training to undertake the tour, including an introduction to the history of the baths building and a script which you can adapt for your tour.

Fee: £90

Interested? Email katherine@govanhillbaths.com, putting 'Tour Guide' in the subject line. Tell us which language you speak and what your availability is on the 17th and 18th September.

Deadline to register interest: Monday 18th July, 5pm
